DIED AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Adeline Brown, aged 89, died at St. Joseph's hospital Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, as a result of self-inflicted injuries with a razor, in an attempt to end her life at her home in Village Hill. Lebanon, Wednesday forenoon. Throughout the day she gradually grew weaker until the end. Mrs. Brown was born in South Kingston, R. I., and was the daughter of Joshua Bradley and Mary Ann (Green) Card. She had made her home in Lebanon for the past half-century, and was well known and liked by all her neighbors. She was a member of the Lebanon Baptist church. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Horace Sadler of Village Hill, Lebanon, and Mrs. Althea Brown of Broadbrook, and an adopted son, Edwin Card of Philadelphia, who was her grandchild. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Reuben P. Burgess of Lebanon and Mrs. Reuben P. Burgess of Lebanon and Mrs. Emily A. Noyes of Liberty Hill. There are a number of grandchildren.

Asst. Supt. of the State Police A. L. Story of Norwich was in town on Thursday and after interviewing a number of people went to Village Hill and looked over the ground. The Sadlers had left and it was reported they had gone to New London to cansult an attorney. State Policeman Story stayed but a short time and left for the south on the 11.18 Central Vermont train.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadier are said to have been packing up their goods preparatory to going to Boston. A short time ago an attachment was placed upon the Brown-Sadier property at Lebanon in favor of Martin Flaherty of this city who claims that there is something due him from Mrs. Sadier. The Sadiers' visit to New London Thursday may have been in connection with this claim.

May Secure Jim Barnes for Match. Thursday afternoon Charles Rogers of Fail-River, Mass., and Arthur B. Small of the Windham Athletic club got together for the purpose of arranging a wrestling match between Tall Feather, the Manitoba Indian, and Young Jenkins of Worcester, to be pulled off in this city next Wednesday evening, but there was none made. Mr. Rogers was willing to match his pupil against Jenkins again if the latter would post a forfeit for a side bet. Jenkins wants a match and when defeated here some time ago by the In-

Jenkins wants a match and when defeated here some time ago by the Indian said that he would post a forfelt but he falled to do so.

Rogers said he would back his man against Jim Barnes of Springfield for the best two out of three falls to a finish. Mr. Small telegraphed to Barnes and in all probability the sports will have an opportunity to see the polished wrestler from the Bay state in action here soon. The match should be a hummer, just suited for a Thread City audience.

Mt. Vernon Lodge Dispenses Hospital-ity for the 38th Year—Death of Geo. L. Maynard—Baseball Subscriptions

The 38th annual banquet and ladies' night of Mt. Vernon lodge, No. 75, F. and A. M., Raymond F. Cheney master, was given in Finn Opera house Thursday evening. The assemblage included nearly all the resident members of Mt. Vernon, accompanied by their wives and sweethearts while there were as guests Masons' widows, and members of other lodges who reside in the borough.

bers of other lodges who reside in the borough.

The decorations of bunting and cut tissue were admired by all, and were generously permitted to remain in position by the firemen, the decorating being originally done by them for their annual ball. The programme, which was liberally applauded, follows:

Broken Idol, Helmold's orchestra; reading. A Novel Cure for Rheumatism, Mr. Maples; solo. The Swallows, Mrs. Potter; reading, The Goblin Scene from Rip Van Winkle, Mr. Maples; plano solo. Sonata Pathelque (first movement). Mr. Potter; solo, All For You, Mrs. Potter; reading. Why is a Hen? by Mr. Maples; solo, La' Chauson Provencale, Mrs. Potter; Wandering and Entreaty Helmold's orchestra.

Mr. Maples has proven his skill as a reader before Jewett City audiences many times, and Thursday evening was an added success. Mrs. Potter is from Providence; and recently sang here at an entertainment given by the Men's club of the Congregational church, Her skilful interpretations then were a most pleasing introduction, and in Thursday evening's programme her charming manner and spiendid voice were no less Board of Trade rooms Thursday even-ing. The Masonic banquet is always in the front rank of the social events of the season. Handsome gowns are the rule, and there is a general good time. The 38th banquet on Thursday evening was in no way an exception.

Company L at its meeting in the armory Thursday evening unanimously elected Louis N. Dondero second lieutenant of the company. Mr. Dondero has been connected with the organization over three years and has been a sergeant greater part of that time. The company now has a full complement of commissioned officers. Thursday evening was in no way an exception.

The committee of arrangements included, H. D. Hewitt, A. G. Brewster. Earle Gilbert, Samuel Baldwin and Peter McArthur. The floor director was George M. Robertson, with E. E. Gilbert, A. G. Brewster and H. D. Hewitt as aides.

A Land Ferry of 1890.

It is recalled that 20 years ago on Thursday, Feb. 24 the upper end of School street and the roadway in front of the Whiting block was impassable with yellow mud. As a joke, R. M. Brown and P. B. Driscoll appeared with a pair of draught horses and a drag, and all day "ferried" men, women and children across the street for the nominal toll of one cent.

Porter's Record Jump.

Herbert Porter and William Trant were star acrobats in Gilbert hall on Wednesday. Porter said: "Boys, I will jump over this rail for a small drink," and over he went, down three atories, landed in the lower hall, and was not hurt a bit! Up he got and wanted to try it again, but after some hesitation he was led to his home and probably no one else will want to try this, so that Porter is the champion jumper as far as in known in the Gilbert hall.

Votes and Confessions. To the Chicago Tribune's question, "If you could vote for president to-day, for whom would you cast your ballot" out of 3.028 republican edi-day, for whom would you east your bailot?" out of 3,038 republican editors in the western states only 1,092 or a little more than a third, answered "Taft." Roosevelt polled many more votes, 1,360 in all, 197 favored La Follette, 122 were for Hughes, 65 for Cummings, 30 for Pinchot and only 14 for Cannon. Forty confessed contrition for rast mistakes of judgment and announced that if election were held today they would vote for Bryan. The result of this poil will be decidedly more pleasing to the "Back from Elba" propagands than to the friends of the present administration. It is a true index of the strength of the anti-Taft and anti-Cannon sentiment throughout the west. The same paper is now polling eastern editors to secure their views on the same subject. The result will be awaited with interest and treplation at the White house.—Waterbury Democrat.
